FLDOE Year-Long Course Descriptions from CPALMS - reflected on the student's transcript

Orchestra 1 #1302360

Students who have little or no orchestral experience study and perform high-quality beginning orchestra literature of diverse times and styles. Rehearsals focus on the development of critical listening skills, rudimentary string techniques, music literacy, ensemble skills, and aesthetic awareness. Public performances may serve as a culmination of specific instructional goals. Students may be required to attend and/or participate in rehearsals and performances outside the school day to support, extend, and assess learning in the classroom. Students in this class may need to obtain (e.g., borrow, rent, purchase) an instrument from an outside source.

Orchestra 2 #1302370

Students who have at least one year of orchestral experience study, rehearse, and perform high-quality orchestra literature. Rehearsals focus on the development of critical listening skills, basic string techniques, music literacy, ensemble skills, and aesthetic awareness in the context of relevant history and cultures. Public performances may serve as a culmination of specific instructional goals. Students may be required to attend and/or participate in rehearsals and performances outside the school day to support, extend, and assess learning in the classroom. Students in this class may need to obtain (e.g., borrow, rent, purchase) an instrument from an outside source.

Orchestra 3 #1302380

Students build on previous orchestral experience through the study and performance of high-quality orchestra literature. Rehearsals focus on the strengthening of critical listening skills, musicianship, string techniques, ensemble skills, and aesthetic awareness in the context of relevant history and cultures. Public performances may serve as a culmination of specific instructional goals. Students may be required to attend and/or participate in rehearsals and performances outside the school day to support, extend, and assess learning in the classroom. Students in this class may need to obtain (e.g., borrow, rent, purchase) an instrument from an outside source.

Orchestra 4 #1302390

Students with intermediate-level proficiency in string techniques, music literacy, critical listening skills, and musicianship study, rehearse, and perform high-quality orchestra literature. Student musicians strengthen their reflective, analytical, and problem-solving skills to self-diagnose solutions to performance challenges based on their structural, historical, and cultural understanding of the music. Public performances may serve as a culmination of specific instructional goals. Students may be required to attend and/or participate in rehearsals and performances outside the school day to support, extend, and assess learning in the classroom. Students in this class may need to obtain (e.g., borrow, rent, purchase) an instrument from an outside source.

Orchestra 5 Honors #1302400

Students with considerable orchestral experience advance their string and ensemble performance techniques, music literacy, music theory, and aesthetic engagement through high-quality orchestra literature. Student musicians use reflection and problem-solving skills to improve performance significantly based on structural, cultural, and historical understanding of the music. Public performances may serve as a culmination of specific instructional goals. Students may be required to attend and/or participate in rehearsals and performances outside the school day to support, extend, and assess learning in the classroom. Students in this class may need to obtain (e.g., borrow, rent, purchase) an instrument from an outside source.

Orchestra 6 Honors #1302410

Students with substantial orchestral experience focus on mastery of advanced music skills, techniques, and processes through study, rehearsal, and performance of high-quality orchestra literature. Advanced string players self-diagnose and consider multiple solutions to artistic challenges based on background knowledge of the repertoire, and explore creativity through composition, arranging, and/or use of technology. Public performances may serve as a culmination of specific instructional goals. Students may be required to attend and/or participate in rehearsals and performances outside the school day to support, extend, and assess learning in the classroom. Students in this class may need to obtain (e.g., borrow, rent, purchase) an instrument from an outside source.

Instrumental Ensemble 4 Honors #1302490

Students with extensive instrumental ensemble experience refine their critical listening, music literacy, and ensemble skills through the study, rehearsal, and performance of high-quality, advanced literature. Students use reflection and problem-solving skills with increasing independence to improve their performance and musical expression. Public performances may serve as a culmination of specific instructional goals. Students may be required to attend and/or participate in rehearsals and performances outside the school day to support, extend, and assess learning in the classroom. This course may also require students to obtain a musical instrument (e.g., borrow, rent, purchase) from an outside source.

Instrumental Techniques 4 Honors #1302450

Students in this advanced class refine their musicianship and performance skills on a specified instrument. Students prepare for post-secondary and community music experiences and develop artistry independently through a variety of advanced solos, etudes, and excerpts. Public performances may serve as a culmination of specific instructional goals. Students may be required to attend and/or participate in rehearsals and performances outside the school day to support, extend, and assess learning in the classroom. This course may also require students to obtain a musical instrument (e.g., borrow, rent, purchase) from an outside source.

Honors and Advanced Level Course Note: Academic rigor is more than simply assigning to students a greater quantity of work. Through the application, analysis, evaluation, and creation of complex ideas that are often abstract and multi-faceted, students are challenged to think and collaborate critically on the content they are learning.

MATERIALS

Notebook paper, staff paper, pencil, shoulder rest/rock stop, rosin, instrument, music, and music folder

PERFORMANCE ATTIRE

Option 1:

Black dress shirt with at least $\frac{3}{4}$ sleeve
LONG black dress skirt (to ankles) or LONG black dress pants
Black socks or hosiery
Closed-toe black dress shoes

Option 2:

Black long sleeve dress shirt (collared)
Black dress pants + Black belt
Black socks
Black dress shoes

For both:

Minimal, not flashy jewelry (small stud earrings, small necklace, no watches or bracelets)
Hair pulled back (ponytail, bun, bobby pinned out of eyes)

Chamber Orchestra: Each person in Chamber Orchestra will rent a performance dress or tuxedo jacket & green tie from MHS for $20 (includes end-of-the-year dry cleaning fee). If you already have a black tuxedo jacket, you will just need to rent the green tie for $5. If you are wearing the dress, you must also wear black socks or hosiery and closed-toe black dress shoes.

Any student that does not adhere to the dress code will not be allowed to perform. We must perform as a team and not draw attention to anything aside from the wonderful music. Jeans, leggings, T-Shirts, sneakers, capris, sandals, flip-flops, etc. are not proper performance attire.

CLASSROOM POLICIES

I only have one policy: Respect. Respect each other by coming prepared, offering assistance, and having a great attitude. Respect rehearsal time by being punctual, prepared, enthusiastic, and helpful without electronic distractions. Respect the classroom by keeping it neat and organized and only having a closed bottle of water. Respect the music by only using a pencil and keeping it neat in a secure folder. Respect your instrument by having short, appropriate length nails and keeping your instrument clean and in working order.

INSTRUMENT RENTAL

It is highly recommended for all students to have their own personal instrument. All violin students must have their own violin. Some great local places to rent or purchase high quality string instruments are Atlantic Strings, the Horn Section, and Muni Strings – NOT ONLINE OR WALMART, etc. Please consult Mrs. Eggen or Mr. Jackson before renting or buying an instrument. Viola, cello, and bass players have the option of renting a school instrument for $60 a year. There are occasions where Mr. Jackson or Mrs. Eggen will need to handle the student's instruments, such as during tuning and for general maintenance.

GRADING

Concerts/Performances - 100 points each
Playing Tests/Quizzes - 20 points each
Written Classwork/Homework - 20 points each
Extra Rehearsals/Sectionals - 20 points each

CONCERT ATTENDANCE

"Students may be required to attend and/or participate in rehearsals and performances outside the school day to support, extend, and assess learning in the classroom." excerpt from FLDOE Orchestra 1 - 6 Honors Course Description <http://www.cpalms.org/Public/PreviewCourse/Preview/4052>

Participation in all concerts/events (Mel-Gallie Orchestra Festival, Chamber Concert, Orchestra Winter Workshop, Winter concert, Pre-MPA, MPA, Spring Concert, etc.) is MANDATORY. Concerts are worth 100 points each. The only excused absences are severe illness with doctor's note and death in the family. Unexcused absences include award ceremonies, jobs, homework, studying, tests the next day, babysitting, banquets, sports, birthdays, parties, non-school related events, etc. In the event that a student misses an orchestra event for an excused absence, they will have to complete an alternate assignment, up to the discretion of Mrs. Eggen. No alternate assignments will be given for unexcused absences. The student and parent/guardian must contact Mrs. Eggen as soon as possible if there is a conflict with any orchestra date.

EXTRA REHEARSALS

In order to prepare for performances, extra rehearsals or sectionals may be necessary. All extra rehearsals will be announced in advance in class, via email, posted to the orchestra website & Google Classroom, and written on the board/daily slide in the orchestra room. Please continually check the calendar. Rehearsals are 20 points each.
